

Product Return/Replacement Form

IF you aren't entirely satisfied with your purchase, we're here to help. We have a 30 day return policy from the date you receive your product. The product must be in the original packaging and unused and undamaged.

A 10% restocking fee is applied to all returns.

When we receive your product for return we will inspect the product and contact you. If your return is accepted we will refund your original payment method. It may take up to 5 days for the credit to appear in your account.

You are responsible for the return shipping cost. Shipping costs are not refundable. The original shipping cost will be deducted from your return (if applicable)
